

Request for Acceptance of North Carolina Examination Scores
ABC/NC Form 3

American Board of Certification (ABC) applicants who have passed the North Carolina Board of Legal Specialization (the NC Board) examination may apply for certification to ABC without taking an additional examination prior to June 1, 2007. Applicants after June 1, 2007, will be required to complete the ABC examination.

Applicants must submit the ABC Short Form Application, the Request for Acceptance of North Carolina Examination Scores (ABC/NC Form 3) along with proof of certification by the NC Board and must submit and meet the requirements of the ABC Long Form Application.

Name

Firm

Address

City, State, Zip

NC License Number

I request that ABC accept the successful results of my NC Board bankruptcy examination and have attached proof of successful completion of the North Carolina exam and/or certification by the NC Board.

Signature

Date

Return Form to:
American Board of Certification
Examination Coordinator
44 Canal Center Plaza, #404
Alexandria, VA 22314
FAX: (703) 739-1060

Please submit this form along with the ABC Short Form Application and proof of successful completion of the North Carolina exam and/or certification by the NC Board.